Introduced members and Guests

Presidents Report: Greg Adam discussed a “short project” list that Mark is working on to include staining the boardwalk.

Park Manager’s Report: Mark Giblin reports –

The ongoing Park Projects include the Ranger Station interior painting and updates, improvements at the maintenance facility and an update in the showers by the beach. New main entrance keypad was installed.

Sea turtle season begins April 1st.

Mark’s cell phone number is 904-669-6075

Grand Opening for the new Water Sports Building is scheduled for March 24th. Ribbon cutting at 11:00am.

The Park has an opening for two (2) part time OPS positions for the summer months. Mark asked if we know anybody that is looking for work (approx. 24 hrs. per week) to contact him.

In Renee Market’s absence – Mark mentioned the Sea Turtle stickers will be available in April. Music in the Park will begin on May 6th. There will be an open “jam session” from 5 to 6 pm – followed by a band performing from 6 to 8 pm.

Financial Report: By Rich Gallik for Doug Imshaug. A copy of the report was previously sent to all board members. Balance approx. $29,447.

Committee Chair Reports:

Endless Summer Run – 25% of spaces are registered.

Membership Report: Dennis (absent) – Report by Rich - At present we have 151 members. Our CSO was contacted by member Michelle DeAngelis to express her desire to volunteer and possibly join our Board. Rich sent her an email inviting her to the April 1st Beach Clean-up event.

Cleanup: Rita Roberts - a Beach Cleanup is scheduled for Saturday April 1st from 8:30 to 10:30 am. Meeting at the Beach Grill.

A “painting Project” is scheduled for April 6th at 8 am. Meet at the Boardwalk.

Waiting for the “to do list” from Park Manager and then will schedule other work/cleanup days.

Recycling/Go Green: The Rangers continue to do the recycling. A new “Eco water filling station” was donated by the Amphitheater but has not yet been installed.

Website: Cecile Nusbaum continues to keep the site updated.

New Business: Greg Adam’s appointed Rita Roberts and Rich Gallik to be on the “Audit Committee”. Rich will send an email to Doug Imshaug and arrange a meeting date.

Jim Gleason – is working on possible “fund raising” opportunities with Salt Life and Beach Comber’s.

Next meeting is April 18 2017 at 6:00 PM.

Rich made a motion to adjourn the meeting and seconded by Rita. Meeting adjourned at 7:15 PM.
